

I drank heavily for 20 years, Maraga reveals

Chief Justice David Maraga has advised the youth addicted to drugs to seek divine attention and expert help. While launching the Drug Awareness Campaign on Saturday at Jomo Kenyatta University of Agriculture and Technology, Maraga confessed that 20 years of his life were wasted as he wallowed in alcoholism. “I was baptised on October 30, 1965, when I was still in primary school but I got into bad company in high school. I started drinking even on credit,” Maraga said. <https://www.the-star.co.ke/news/2019-05-20-i-drank-heavily-for-20-years-maraga-reveals>
