

Deadly Zika virus confirmed circulating in Kenya

The deadly Zika virus, which almost marred the 2016 Olympic Games in Brazil, has been detected in Kenya for the first time. The team from the Ministry of Health, the Nairobi-based International Centre of Insect Physiology and Ecology (Icipe), Kenya Medical Research Institute (Kemri) and Jomo Kenyatta University of Agriculture and Technology want measures put in place to prevent a possible outbreak.

<https://www.standardmedia.co.ke/health/article/2001326447/deadly-zika-virus-confirmed-circulating-in-kenya>